Communication
Five representatives from PLEA (Papillion La Vista Education Association), Mr. Dave Herbener, Ms. Ellen Kane, Ms. Melissa Hansen, Ms. Lindsey Wilson, and Mr. Andrew Nabity addressed the Board on behalf of staff who completed a survey that was given by PLEA. All five members provided testimony from the survey that was completed on November 22. Percentages were provided from the survey on the State of the Staff after 3.5 months of teaching during the pandemic. They spoke of the staff’s emotional state of their working conditions, teacher workload, teacher mental health, Administration support, and classroom social distancing. Dr. Rikli thanked the representatives and ensured them that the District would meet with PLEA to discuss their concerns.

Presentation
Ms. Lois Erickson, Business Partnership Facilitator for the District’s Cooperation BEST program, gave an update to the Board. Cooperation BEST is our School Business Partnership Program. Through Cooperation BEST (Better Educate Students for Tomorrow), businesses and organizations are paired with schools, educational programs and our community to assist in preparing our students for tomorrow. Partnerships are based on human resources; relationships that are mutually beneficial for the school and the business. Ms. Erickson shared the history of the program. She also gave the current goals of the program and how the pandemic has affected our business partners.

Superintendent’s Report
Dr. Rikli provided a report of highlights and activities he has attended this past month. Dr. Rikli thanked the Board and community for a successful Facebook Live event which provided an update on the pandemic and how it is impacting our schools. The event was held November 17 with over 2000 viewers.
The Board of Education’s two new board members, Mr. Skip Bailey and Mr. Marcus Madler, will have a new board orientation November 24 with the District’s Administration.

Dr. Rikli shared with the Board that the American Education Week concluded. He thanked the PLEA representatives that were in the audience in addition to thanking all the District’s staff for their commitment and hard work.

Dr. Rikli and Mr. Brian Lodes met virtually with Colonel Alan Dayton to discuss the Military Advisory position. It was decided that Colonel Dayton would report during the second board meeting of each month. The purpose of the position is to maintain our relationship with the Base and continue to assure that the Military needs are being met.

Dr. Rikli shared with the Board that Mr. Doug Lewis, Assistant Superintendent of Business, had given his resignation to be effective the end of the school year. The Administration is currently working on preparing questions for the interviewing process and will open the job position soon. It is the District’s goal to have the position filled by the end of January.

NASB’s State Education Conference was held November 19 and 20th with Ms. Valerie Fisher and Dr. Kati Settles presenting on Innovative Practices to Help with Sub Shortages.

On closing Dr. Rikli rearticulated the District’s intention is to stay in school. The District will continue to operate as safely as possible with wearing masks, social distancing, staying on top of cleaning, and being vigilant.
